Nature Camp Update

The time has come and camp is right around the corner! We will be leaving on Monday May 21 at 7:30 am. Please be sure your 6th grader is packed and ready to go on this morning. It is imperative that each student be here on time. There is one more waiver that I am sending home that needs to be signed by parents before going to camp. Please look for it in this week's Friday Folder. It is an updated version of the activity waiver for paintball, horseback and ziplining. Have that signed and returned to me on Monday May 14th. The camp will not allow your 6th grader to participate in any of these activities if they do not have the updated waiver signed. I'm really looking forward to seeing what God has in store for my students at camp this year. Please encourage your child to have a positive and uplifting attitude as he/she goes off to camp. Please be aware that all 6th graders do not have school on the Friday upon our return as well as the following Monday as it is Memorial Day holiday.

Book Report Due Date

The 4th and final book report will be due on June 1, 2012. It needs to be on a Christian Fiction book. Most 6th graders have already gotten their book approved but if your child has not, please remind he/she to come see me with their book choice. This is a written book response in a typed or hand written form. The outline for this report is in your 6th graders Friday Folder this week. Please contact me if you have any questions regarding this report.
