

CLASS EXPECTATIONS:

DISCIPLINE- SEVEN STEPS TO SUCCESS

- R- espect yourself, others, and all property
- E- ncourage one another
- S-upplies and books required in class daily
- P-articipate in the learning process
- E-xpect to be in class on time
- C-ontrol your desire to act or speak out inappropriately in class
- T-urn in all assignments on time

GRADES:

| | | | |
|---------------|----------|--------|---|
| Classwork | Homework | 100-90 | A |
| Participation | Quizzes | 89-80 | B |
| Activities | Tests | 79-70 | C |
| | | 69-60 | D |
| | | 59- | F |

TEXTBOOK: World Studies

HOMEWORK:

- Reading
- Section Reviews
- Chapter Reviews
- Unfinished Classwork

My love of history came from my parents. My father was in the army and we moved a lot. From my first trip to the Alamo when I was in the fourth grade when my father was stationed in San Antonio, I loved visiting historical places. We lived in many states and I attended sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades in Germany. It was a natural thing for me when I went to college to major in education with a concentration in Social Studies. I married an Air Force pilot and traveled the world with him for 21 years. It has been my great joy and pleasure to teach junior high history at WCCS for twenty-three years. It is my goal to impart to each student that I have the privilege to teach my love of history and relate it to the Lord.

May God bless each family as we work together to have a successful year.

Mrs. Phillips