Lions, Tigers and Bears, Oh My!

I cannot believe it but we are now in the final push until the end of the year, with only three and a half weeks left. This week we are continuing our language arts unit, "A World of Animals." Your child will be review the short "u" sound and the sight words "he" and "are." This week we will also be memorizing the fifth verse of Psalm 23, which we will be reciting in its entirety at graduation. Please be sure to continue reviewing the previous four verses as well.

I am looking forward to our field trip to the Los Angeles Zoo this Friday. Please see the attached flier for more details regarding this fun and exciting day. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Also, please be sure to note the attached flier for information about our rapidly approaching Kindergarten Graduation!
